Patsy,
We didn't get to be neighbors very long did we. That was about a month. We'll see you around next year, and I hope this summer.
Good luck,

Foreward

Who are the moderns? In Elizabethan times William Shakespeare startled the literary world with his ultra-modernism. But in time his age gave way to another "modernism" . . . that, to another and so on down through the years.

Today WE are the moderns, but in the now seemingly distant tomorrow when we leaf through the pages of this high school annual, we will think, "Oh, how passe' !" But we want to remember our time, our school, the things we did and how we looked when we were doing them so we use a modern theme in art and format. Our cover compass-points our "place in the sun" . . . Idaho.

The Shakespeare quotes should remind us that our age too will pass . . . that modernism is purely relative.

So here it is, you denizens of tomorrow's brave new world . . . your 1959 COYOTE. May you enjoy in each respect . . . and in retrospect . . . every page of it!

Best of luck to everyone who don't forget we have the U.S. Grand History. As always,
 Mike Brown

Patsy - never forget well. Have good luck

Dedication

Thirty-five years of unbroken service to one school and community is an achievement worthy of recognition. Few teachers can claim this distinction. Yet there is such a teacher on our faculty who through all these years has given generously of her time, her knowledge and her wisdom to the hundreds of students who have passed through her classes.

Her contagious and hard-hitting humor, her relentless challenging of each student's sense of responsibility while testing his skill in biology, her staunch loyalty, her vital philosophy and her vigorous personality are rooted deep in our Twin High tradition.

As a humble expression of our appreciation we dedicate this 1959 COYOTE to one whom we all cherish and admire . . . MISS HELEN MINIER.

THERE IS NO DEATH

—Unknown

There is a plan far greater than the plan we know
There is a landscape broader than the one we see,
There is a haven where stormtossed souls may go—
You call it death—we, immortality.
You call it death—this seeming endless sleep;
We call it birth—the soul at last set free;
'Tis hampered not by time or space—
Why weep at death? 'Tis immortality.
Farewell, dear friend—'twill not be long.
Your work is done—now may peace rest with you.
Your kindly thoughts and deeds—they will live on.
This is not death—'tis immortality.
Farewell,—the river winds and turns;
The cadence of your song comes near to us,
And now you know the things that all men learn:
There is no death—there's immortality.

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want;
He makes me lie down in green pastures.
He leads me beside still waters;
He restores my soul.
He leads me in paths of righteousness
for His name's sake.
Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I fear no evil;
for thou art with me;
thy rod and thy staff,
they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil,
my cup overflows.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life;
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

Dear Miss Miller,

Well, you told me to write you a letter.

Milly, you'll never know how much fun I've had with ^{you} these past few years. Think of and always remember all the crazy things we've done. I would never want to have done it with anyone but you.

We're really going to have a blast this summer. If you ever finish summer school (HA HA) you'll have to come up to our cabin. It will be a blast up there.

Don't forget that we're going to California next summer.

I want to wish you all the happiness that anyone could have for always. Good luck in all that you do.

Sincerely ← (sounds stiff doesn't it)
Jean Anderson

Autographs

Patsy,
Sure has been a swell year! I think you're a darling little girl.
Keep that darling personality.
Best of luck in school.
Love

Love a friend
Bunny Hanchey '60

I have been wondering how you had got along these years!
I know that you got somewhere if you had it made your own way.
I hope I see you next year.

(Signed) "61"

Thos

Sincerely,
Christ

ORGANI

Patsy-
I' HAVEN'T GOT TO KNOW YOU BUT WHAT I DO KNOW AND SEE I LIKE. I WISH I WAS A JUNIOR AND MAYBE I COULD GET YOU TO LOOK AT ME NEXT YEAR. GOOD LUCK THIS SUMMER.

Thanksgiving Assembly

Girl's League is the basic "guidance" organization for 550 girls in Twin Falls High School. It offers all girls an opportunity to have functional experiences in leadership, group cooperation, responsibility, and resourcefulness. Widespread student participation is the underlying goal—participation in school and community affairs which will give each girl a secure sense of "belonging."

The theme "Three Coins in a Fountain" spear-headed the activities for 1958-59. Regular meetings and community service projects served as guidance directives along academic, civic, and cultural lines. Special activities during the year were:

- Big-Little Sister Rally
- The All-Girl Mixer
- Thanksgiving Assembly
- Sweetheart Ball
- Sophomore Daughter-Dad Smorgasbord
- Junior Pow-Wow for Parents
- Senior Mother-Daughter Banquet
- Graduation Memory Arch

The Bruin

THE BRUIN: Twin High bi-weekly newspaper, primarily purposes to inform the student body and community of newsworthy campus events. But, as a production of the journalism class, it affords students opportunity to improve their writing skills in the areas of news, news-feature, sports and feature stories, interviews and speech reports, as well as editorial writing.

On Friday, December 1, 1927, the Bruin made its first appearance at Twin High, sponsored by Miss Pauline Schwarz. Other advisers have been Miss Eva Dunagan, Mrs. Mercedes J. Paul, Mr. Louis J. Schroyer, and Miss Melba McNutt.

F. F. A.

The Future Farmers of America is a non-profit, non-political farm organization of voluntary membership, dedicated to the development of competent, agricultural leadership and improvement in scholarship and citizenship.

Organized in November of 1928 to utilize the systematic instruction of Vocational Agriculture, and to provide further training in farmer-citizenship, the Future Farmer's program has Chapters in all 50 states.

The motto:

Learning to do
Doing to learn
Learning to live
Living to serve.

The Twin Falls Chapter of 60 members co-sponsored the Harvest Ball and assisted with other community projects. Mr. D. Flynn, Vocational Agriculture teacher, assists with meetings held once a month.

A fresh, red and white candy-striped uniform and friendly smile accompanies these young girls as they go cheerfully about their work at Magic Valley Memorial Hospital. These girls do not give personal care to patients but perform the many other challenging and interesting duties of a young nurse. Through the Future Nurses Club and its activities, high school girls get a "sneak preview" of the nursing profession.

National Honor Society was started in Twin Falls High School in 1957 and there are at this time 33 members. The objective of this chapter, as stated in the constitution, is to create an enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote worthy leadership, and to encourage the development of character in students of Twin Falls High School. Membership, which consists of juniors and seniors, is based on scholarship, service, leadership and character.

"Learning is but an adjunct to ourselves."

And

Patsy,

It's been real nice knowing you and you really have an o.k. personality.
I sure hope you have all sorts of fun next year and I bet you really go far and get a lot accomplished.

Take things really easy.

Thespians

"On stage, everyone," is a familiar ring to the ears of all Thespians. The purpose of the National Thespian Honor Society is the recognition of students enrolled in drama. The motto: "Act well your part, there all the honor lies." In order to belong to the organization students must prove themselves valuable back stage as well as before the footlights. The highlight of the year for members of Troupe 256 is the production of a play with all Thespian participation. This year's play "The Bus Stops Here," under the direction of Miss Rose Marie Perrin, Thespian sponsor, was well attended and acclaimed.

To kick, or not to kick: that is the question:
Whether 'tis nobler after scoring to suffer
The slings and arrows of Bruin boosters,
Or to run the ball against a sea of linemen,
And against opposing ends? To pass: to run;
No more; and by a single point to hope we end
The heartache and the thousand grandstand wails
That a coach is heir to?

THE END OF STUDY

*What is the end of study?
let me know.*

Why, that to know, which else we should not know.

*Things hid and barr'd, you mean,
from common sense?*

Ay, that is study's god-like recompense.

OUR THANKS TO:

E. N. Pettygrove for photography.

Carl Orrin for special art.

Standard Printing Co. for printing our book.

The Times-News and Larry Hovey for pictures.

English teachers who patiently endured the class interruptions for the taking of the individual pictures.

All who cooperated and assisted in many ways in the production of this book.

William Shakespeare for captions appropriate and otherwise.
